Arts for the Soul

Music & Fine Arts at First Presbyterian Church

2016-2017 Season

10th Anniversary Season
A Celebration of Festive Music & Hymns

Sunday, October 9, 2016, 3:00 p.m.

Featuring the First Presbyterian Choir, Handbells, and Instrumentalists

Dr. Brian Pfoltner, conductor;
Dr. Charles W. Ore, organist
Jack Levick, special guest conductor

We begin our tenth anniversary season in the same manner in which we premiered Arts for the Soul in October of 2007, with a celebratory concert of festive music and hymns! We will again feature a variety of joyous and inspiring music including works by both Brian Pfoltner and Charles W. Ore. Don’t miss out on helping us celebrate reaching this ten-year milestone of offering great music and fine arts concerts and outreach to Lincoln and beyond.
Rhonda Larson & Ventus
-Winds of the World

Friday, November 18, 2016, 7:30 p.m.

Grammy Winning Flutist
Rhonda Larson and Ventus present Winds of the World

Grammy winning flutist Rhonda Larson is a native of Montana, imbuing her with a nature-loving, trail-blazing ‘wild west’ spirit with a mountain-top perspective as to creative possibilities. Composing her own music, and accompanied by her band Ventus, Larson’s visionary force combines her musical and technical wizardry, creating refreshing new music for the flute, and performed on an array of ethnic flutes from around the world.

“Rhonda’s evening of flute music radiated. There was a straightforward positive musicality to what she did and it cheered the listener.”
—The New York Times

“Without a doubt, one of the world’s most gifted flutists... unbound by musical genres.”
—Robert Walmsley, Musical Soundscapes
Sing from the Heart
-Our Favorite Things

Dessert Concert and Charity Fundraiser
Sunday, February 19, 2017, 7:30 p.m.
(in Great Hall) NOTE — Seating is limited

Featuring the First Presbyterian Choir with guest soloists Malley Keelan, tenor; and Daniel Martinez, guitar.

Charity Fundraiser for The Food Bank of Lincoln BackPack Program.

This year our popular dessert concert and charity fundraiser will feature a collection of audience and choir favorites from previous years’ events. We will also spotlight and take a freewill donation for the charity we featured in our very first Sing From the Heart concert—The Food Bank of Lincoln BackPack Program. Join us for an evening of great music and fabulous desserts!
The Rodney Marsalis Philadelphia Big Brass

Saturday, April 1, 2017, 7:30 p.m.

No foolin’, this will be an evening of great music! The Rodney Marsalis Philadelphia Big Brass is composed of some of America’s top brass musicians, a veritable “dream team” of virtuoso players who have performed with some of the world’s most prominent groups. Their performances range from solo trumpet, to brass quintet, to the full ensemble with percussion, and include a wide range of music and styles.

“No one plays absolutely beautifully all the time...unless you’re my cousin Rodney”
- Wynton Marsalis

“The Rodney Marsalis Philadelphia Big Brass is a quantum leap forward in what a brass group can bring to an audience. It simply is the next big thing.”
- Jens Lindemann, former member of The Canadian Brass
A Silent Film
with Brett Valliant

Friday, April 21, 2017, 7:30 p.m.

Featuring a silent film with live organ accompaniment by Brett Valliant, followed by a special Gala Reception with live music, great food, and a retrospective on ten years of Arts for the Soul.

This will be a very special evening as we celebrate the completion of ten seasons of Arts for the Soul. We will begin the evening with the return of organist Brett Valliant who will provide live accompaniment to one of the greatest films of any era, the silent film, The General, starring Buster Keaton and inspired by The Great Locomotive Chase of 1862. We will then move to the reception hall for live music, hors d’oeuvres, and a celebration of a decade of Arts for the Soul.
