First Presbyterian Church
Policy Requiring Adherence to Organization Policies

This organization requires all employees and high-access volunteers to children, youth and vulnerable adults to sign a statement of acknowledgement and compliance with all organizational policies upon hire or initial appointment as a ruling elder, deacon, Stephen Minister or volunteer and repeated annually during times of active service.

Acknowledgement of Policies, Code of Conduct, or Standards

All employees and volunteers with access to children and youth shall confirm that they have read and agree to comply with the organization's abuse prevention policies, and Code of Conduct by signing a written acknowledgment upon hire or appointment to their role and annually thereafter.

The organization shall ensure that all employees and volunteers have signed a written acknowledgment upon hire and annually thereafter by keeping signed acknowledgement forms in personnel files.
